the purposes and objectives of the Legion, as contained in the "ACT TO INCORPORATE", The Royal Canadian Legion, Chapter 84 of the Statutes of Canada 1948, as amended by Chapter 86 of the Statutes of Canada 1951; by Chapter 72 of the Statutes of Canada 1959; Chapter 83 of the Statutes of Canada 1961; by Chapter 112 of the Statutes of Canada 1975; by Chapter 47 of the Statutes of Canada 1977 - 1978 and by the Statutes of Canada 1980 - 1981, included:

- e) perpetuate the memory and deeds of the fallen and those who die in the future;
- f) to promote and care for memorials to their valour and sacrifice... to keep an annual Memorial Day, to preserve the records and memorials of their service and to see that such service shall not be forgotten by the nation;
- g) to educate public opinion regarding national duties to the dead;
- h) to foster loyalty among the public and educations in the principles of patriotism, duty and unstinted public service; AND

Whereas

every person who has been initiated into membership in The Royal Canadian Legion has sworn to uphold and advance the aims and objectives of the Legion; AND the Provincial Poppy Committee has recommended that the observance of a 'REMEMBRANCE WEEK' immediately prior to November 11th. Would do a great deal to encourage greater interests on the part of the public; that we, by and with the approval of the Provincial Command of The Royal Canadian Legion do designate the seven days commencing November 4th. And ending November 11th. as:

Whereas

Knows We

"Remembrance Week"

and we do recommend to all loyal members of The Royal Canadian Legion and to all other citizens of the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador:

1. Remembrance Week is a time for each one of us to reflect and recall to mind the sacrifices made by our Veterans to ensure the peace we now enjoy.
2. The Poppy is the symbol of Remembrance, Peace and Hope for the future.
3. On November 11th., if you can't remember war, think of peace and participate by wearing a Poppy, the flower that won the peace.
